A psychological thriller, this film is the journey of a single mother Maya Verma who finally starts her life afresh with her six-year-old daughter Nia.

As Maya starts to pick up the pieces of her life, strange things start happening around her.

Nia begins to speak to her dead father and slowly Maya's life falls apart and the reality gets darker until she begins to doubt her own sanity.

Director Suparn Verma, who has been writing and making feature films for nearly a decade, experiments with the supernatural in this one.

The film features Bipasha Basu and the current toast of Indian cinema, Nawazuddin Siddiqui.
